This document outlines the main benefits and restrictions associated with an AIG Car Hire Excess policy. It does not reference all of the benefits, terms, conditions, limitations, exceptions associated with the policy. Please take time to read the policy and your schedule to ensure that you understand the cover provided by the policy. This document does not form part of your contract of insurance.

What is this type of insurance?

Annual Car Hire Excess Insurance provides cover for the excess charged by the car rental company in the event the rental vehicle is damaged or stolen. It also provides cover for damage to parts of the rental vehicle that are sometimes not covered by the insurance provided by the car rental company – the windows, undercarriage, roof, tyres, wheels and headlights. The policy covers you for multiple rental agreements during the period of insurance. The maximum period of any single rental agreement must not exceed 31 continuous days if you have selected a European policy or 60 continuous days if you have selected a Worldwide policy. The policy extends to cover the policyholder and up to 5 drivers named on the car rental agreement.
